Boxing Latest Sport to Help "The Sun" and "Evening Sun" Tobacco Fund

Following the generous contributions of baseball and racing to the Soldiers Tobacco Fund of The Sun and The Evening Sun, a third great branch of professional aport, boxing, has awang into line, and will help swell the grand total in aid of this worthy cause.

Billy Gibson, the noted boxing promoter of The Bronx, and manager of the famous Henny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, has the honor to be the first of the roped square experts to volunteer assistance to The Sun and The Evening Sun Fund. Mr Gibson has offeged the Fairmont Athletic Club, 251 East 157th street, for a boxing entertainment to be staged there next Wednesday night, July 11, at which Benny Leonard will appear in a bout with some man to be selected by Gibson. Other noted boxers will also be seen in action. Tom McArdle is now arranging a series of bouts to be seen in action. Several more prominent racing men declared yesterday that THE SUN and THE EVENING SUN Fund was an excellent one and that they would help to swell it. M. F. Schwarts, the popular young owner who is having great success with his string of thoroughbreds, said he would send a check for $50 to the fund to-day. Thomas Healey, the noted trainer, who has charge of the big string of horses belonging to Richard T. Wilson, Jr., and Willie Midgley, trainer for Gifford A. Cochran, will turn over tidy sums to the fund from their stables late this week. John Cavannaugh is handling the campaign for the fund at the Aqueduct track.

Surprising Result Marks Hot 12 Round Bout at Boston.

Boston, July 8 .- Eddie Wallace, the New York lightweight, sprang a sur-prise to-night by defeating Willie Jack-son, also of New York, in a spirited twelve round bout. Wallace outpointed the favorite in a cleancut manne schooled against Jackson's dreaded right. Finding it hard to pene trate Wallace's guard, Jackson directed his attack toward Wallace's body. The latter stopped some heavy blows around midsection, but stood up under n well. The desire to knock out Wallace with one punch cost Jackson many an opportunity to score. Wallace continued to add points in each round and at the finish had piled up a com-

Of course severance of connections with Willard and contemplated legal action for financial contemplated legal action financial c redrese may play its part in Jones's

However, Tom blew into Chicago, and in passing the time of day deposed as follows: "Willard is worth between $500,000 and $500,000 to-day. Of that amount about $425,000 is stored away in cold cash on deposit in Chicago banks. One bank on the loop carries $90,000 in Willard's name, and another has $60. 000. There still is a third neighborhood bank near where Jees lives that carries a healthy check account. All of this has been saited away since Jess slapped the pugilistic crown from the ebony dome of Jack Johnson down in Havana

Roused from its lethargy by taunts from the East translated into scathing distribes by home scribes, St. Louis has vided responsibility and independent acrallied to the national amateur track and field championship meeting. Some Bob Folwell case last winter.

CHIP AND GIBBONS BOX IN OHIO TO-DA'

Ty Cobb will be the first major leaguer to get 100 hits this season. That was made certain yesterday when Tyrus reached the 98 mark and placed his battling average at 384. Speaker is 28 points behind.

There were no changes among the leaders in either the American or the National League. In the senior circuit Walter Cruise managed to keep I point shead of Eddie Roush, with Hornsby, Olson and Wheat following. The leading batsmen follow: With Griffiths-No Contests in This City.

Joe Marrone's King of the Mudders Beats Opponents Over Sloppy Track.

Rain played havon with the pro-gramme at Aqueduct yesterday after-noon. It turned the track into a verifadangerous that a majority of owners scratched their horses rather than take chances of injuring them. In the six events the blue pencil was used on twenty-nine entries.

While the storm cast a gloom over a majority of owners as well as nearly all racegoers, it brought great joy to Joe Marrone, the veteran Italian horseman. Joe has a small stable of selling platers.
one of which is the "King of the Mudders." This king is J. J. Lillis, a big black golding six years old, a sor of Bannockburn and Tootsy Mack, which would rather run races over a sloppy track than on one lightning fast Yesterday he was entered in the Rock away Selling Stakes, a six furlong dash, the feature of the programme. While the rain was falling during the early races Joe was as happy as on a fishing party. He knew the rain would help his golding to victory, and when he looked at the sloppy condition of the track before the horses were called to the post for the Rocksway Joe bubbled with enthusiasm. He told his friends he was positive Lillis would sail home in front. As a result Lillis was

After he had led home his opponents over the one mile route Emil Hers bid him up from $1,000, his entered selling price to $2,300 and led the horse to his barn.

The Summartes:

For the first time in many years there will not to-day be a boxing bout in Greater New York or vicinity, all the noted boxers having signed for bouts in Kankakee and other populous centres of the Weet. The most important contest of Independence Day will be that between Mike Gibbons and George Chip at Youngstown, Ohio. This bout should go far toward settling the status of Gibbons, for Chip will insist on a fight.
